

The Reading Public Museum
2022 Yuletide Around the World

November 21 – January 8

Come help celebrate the season by being part of the Reading Public Museum’s 6th Annual Yuletide Around the World—Festival of Trees. Join other community organizations as they decorate holiday trees inspired by customs, traditions or symbolism of their cultures.

- Have your community organization represented in the galleries of The Museum
- Trees will have artwork paired from The Museum’s Collection when possible

Requirements

- Organize community volunteers to decorate a holiday tree or display showcasing the traditional holiday celebrations of your group’s homeland and provide cultural decorations.
- Trees or displays will be decorated the week of November 14 with the final day to decorate is Sunday, November 20, 2022.
- Trees or displays will then need to be disassembled by community volunteers between the close of the exhibition on Monday, January 9 and Friday, January 13, 2023.
- Groups should encourage members of your community organization to come visit the display throughout running time of the exhibition.
- The Museum has a limited number of trees available, and they will be distributed on a first come first serve basis. Organizations may be asked to provide their own tree.
- If an organization is interested in supplying their own tree, they may do so. Trees must be artificial, no taller than 84” and no wider than 45” at the widest point.
- Organizations should plan to supply all decorations and lights for trees.
