

SECOND FLOOR

- We Encourage.....
- Exploration
 - Asking before touching
 - Trying to use walking feet
 - Curiosity and questions

These are our Temporary Exhibition Galleries - This month these galleries feature the special exhibit: In Nature's Studio: 200 years of American Landscape Painting

We Welcome.....

- Learners of all ages and abilities
- Kids being kids
- Fidgets and other sensory devices

Don't Forget to visit The Planetarium

- Public star shows M-F at 2., 3., and 4p.m. Sundays at 1, 2, 3, and 4p.m.
- Tickets available at The Museum admission desk
- Sensory kits available at The Planetarium.

Museum Sensory Map

Museum Map Symbols & Meanings

Please look for these symbols on The Museum map to help you determine which galleries in The Museum are the best for you to visit. Please ask any staff member if you have any questions or need assistance.

Hands-On Component — There may be objects or activities in this gallery that your child can touch.

Scary Component — There may be an object in this gallery that your child might find scary.

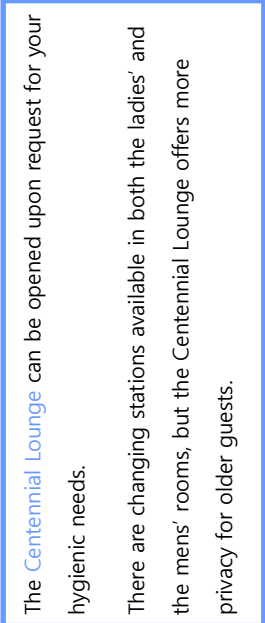

Video Component — There may be a video in this gallery that might overstimulate your child.

Noise Component— There may be a noise component in this gallery that might be too loud for your child.

Sensory kits can be checked out at
The Museum admission desk for use during your visit.

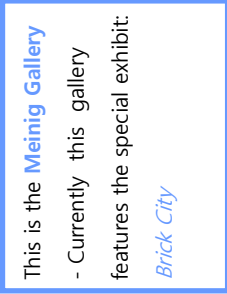

*The only restrooms in
The Museum are directly back and to the left of the Atrium.*

This is the Works on Paper Gallery

- Currently this gallery features the special exhibit: The American Spirit: Public Art from the Great Depression

The Museum
Gift Shop

This is the World Cultures Gallery - Currently this gallery features the special exhibit: Brick City

Please be aware that we do have a mummy in the Ancient Civilizations Gallery, and her face is exposed.

There is also a hologram projection in this gallery